

SUGAR LAND BIBLE CHURCH
"BRINGING THE BIBLE TO LIFE FOR 34 YEARS"

THE CORNERSTONE

January 2016

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through Him, and apart from Him nothing came into being that has come into being. John 1:1-3

Pastor Andy Woods to Teach Wednesday Evenings!

Beginning in January 2016 Pastor Andy Woods will be teaching Wednesday night Bible study at Sugar Land Bible Church for the Spring quarter.

The focus of this class will be on "Soteriology," which otherwise known as the "Doctrine of Salvation." Of all of the topics discussed in the Bible, this subject is perhaps the most paramount from the human viewpoint since a correct understanding of its contents determines where we spend eternity (Gal. 1:6-9). The material for this teaching will be taken from a class that Pastor Andy regularly teaches at the College Of Biblical Studies entitled "Man, Sin, Salvation." The material covered in this class will include the definition of salvation, election versus free will, the atonement, salvation words, God's one condition of salvation, eternal security, the results of salvation, and the false views of salvation. Many subtopics will be explored under each of these major headings such as Lordship Salvation, Calvinism versus Arminianism, Inclusivism and Universalism, the possibility of carnal Christianity, the doctrine of rewards, and the three tenses of salvation, etc... The format will proceed a little differently than what folks may be used to. First, we will be doing our teaching in the sanctuary. Second, the sessions will be videotaped and archived for the benefit of our missionaries who sometimes need theological guidance in certain areas. Third, the basic format will include prayer from 6:45 to 7 PM, teaching from 7 to 8 PM, and questions and answers from 8 to 8:15 PM. We understand that some will have to leave at 8 pm sharp to collect their children and so they may not be able to stick around for the question and answer session. We are excited to be offering this new class for the benefit of the saints at Sugar Land Bible Church. We hope and pray that many will take advantage of it. We are looking forward to what God will do through these sessions of study in "His Word."

Ministry Focus

Philippians 1:27b, "That you are standing firm in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel." At the end of last March the Lord stirred a new vision/ strategy for more effectively reaching soldiers on Ft. Hood. The soldiers we seek to train in our ministry attend several different local churches. Since their time is limited, many times there is tension between choosing to be intentional insiders on post or to be absorbed into valid in-church only ministries. The idea the Lord gave us was to develop these soldiers to be able to do both, minister on Ft. Hood and in their church at the same time. We aim to train some to be liaisons of our intentional, outreach ministry to in-turn train others in their churches who are mission minded to, in a sense, go on mission to Ft. Hood. Each church including the Post Chapel could have a dedicated team to be reaching out to those they live, work, and play with on Ft. Hood and in the surrounding communities. As a result, our ministry will be utilized in a greater capacity to train believers and to reach the lost, and each church will have well-trained disciples who will help their respective churches grow. We are trusting that the greatest effect will be that His Gospel will more effectively and rapidly sweep across the whole post by these focused teams working as one.

From the Knowing Comes the Going

In John 15:4-8 there is a direct correlation between abiding in Christ (the knowing) and being fruitful (the going). Many times I hear believers say, "I need to do more for God," thinking if they serve God then they will be in greater favor or have a better relationship with Him. Although God does want us to bear much fruit for Him, He's much more interested in us knowing Him. We as disciples seem to be all about what we can do for God but can get sideways with Him when tough times come our way. We might think that, if we are doing great things for God, He will reciprocate by making our life smooth and easy. But what we may be missing is that to know Him is His real heartbeat, and He many times brings us into suffering to learn how to truly trust and know Him better which enables greater fruit bearing.

In Jesus' commissioning of the disciples in Matt. 28:18-20, Jesus let us know Him as the one who has ALL authority. Then He followed up with the going statement of which has forever changed the world. In essence, we can't be effective for God until we know God. So, we must be yielding our lives to those who teach us the Word and digging daily into His Word personally with the desire of knowing Him more and deeper. Then those things we do in His name, the going, will be a relational outflow of the knowing regardless of the suffering that may come. This can make life in Him much more fulfilling.

Family Focus

Our family continues to be strong and have endurance, with each maturing physically and spiritually in the midst of constant change and challenge.

Andrew is asking great questions about the Lord and working through truly knowing and trusting Him. He also has been playing city league soccer and beginning to beat his body up with this "Parkour" thing. He will enter the 8th grade this fall.

Philip keeps devouring books and food. He has taken his place as the tallest member of our household. His frequent trips to the pantry seem to be helping that along. He will enter the 10th grade and begin dual credit courses at our local community college.

Elizabeth recently returned from a mission trip to Turkey and has expressed the desire to return to continue to reach women and children of the Muslim community there. She will continue her cross cultural degree at Howard Payne and prepare for ministry.

Robin continues to pour into the lives of some young women and girls here and attempts to keep her thumb "green" as she makes the yard more beautiful and inviting.

Art has found a "second wind" in the new strategy to reach out at Ft Hood. With his back issues leveling off, he is finding more relief from the intense pain he was experiencing. He continues to personally mentor soldiers in the faith. He also will soon have to set his retirement date with the Air Force Reserves.

The Rapture (Part 34)

My previous articles commenced a series on the rapture of the church. We began with the question, "What is the Rapture?" This question can best be answered by noting ten truths about the rapture from 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 and 1 Corinthians 15:50-58. We then moved to a second main question, namely, when will the rapture take place relative to the coming seven-year Tribulation period? We offered the contention that believers can develop certainty that they will be raptured before the Tribulation period occurs for at least seven reasons. After dealing with these two questions, we began to explore some of the weaknesses associated with the other competing views that seek to answer the question, "When Will the Rapture Take Place Relative to the Coming Tribulation Period?" At least five differing perspectives exist. We noted at the onset that it is important to understand that all of the non-pretribulation positions have a difficult time handling the seven arguments favoring pre-tribulationism previously discussed in this series. Beyond this, we have already noted the problems associated with mid-tribulationism and post-tribulationism, and partial rapturism. In this and the next article, we will briefly explain and analyze pre-wrath rapturism.

PRE-WRATH RAPTURISM

Pre-wrath rapture theory has been promoted into modern-day evangelicalism through the relatively recent writings of Robert Van Kampen and Marvin Rosenthal. Alan Kurschner represents an even more recent promoter of this view. Perhaps the best way to understand this view is to note how pre-wrath rapturists divide the coming Tribulation period, or Seventieth Week of Daniel (Dan. 9:27), into three distinct phases.

First, the "beginning of sorrows" is the label pre-wrath rapturists give to the first-half of the Tribulation period. This segment represents the three-and-one-half year time period from the beginning of the seven-year period with the signing of the peace treaty between the Antichrist and unbelieving Israel and terminating with the Antichrist's desecration of the rebuilt Jewish temple at the Tribulation's midpoint. Sometimes pre-wrath rapturists, based upon Matthew 24:4-8, refer to this segment as "unexpected soft labor pains." Pre-wrath rapturists contend that the first four seal judgments (Rev. 6:1-8) will transpire during this time period.

Second, the next major section of the Tribulation period, according to pre-wrath rapturists, is called the "Great Tribulation." This segment will begin with the desecration of the temple by the Antichrist at the Tribulation's midpoint when he will erect a pagan statue in the rebuilt Jewish temple (Dan. 9:27; 12:11; Matt. 24:15; 2 Thess. 2:3-4; Rev. 13:15). Apparently, this segment will be initiated with the opening of the fifth seal judgment (Rev. 6:9-11) and will conclude with the opening of the sixth seal judgment (Rev. 6:12-17). This section will last roughly twenty-one months. During this time period, both the wrath of Satan and man through the Antichrist will be brought forth in an unprecedented manner (Matt. 24:21-22; Rev. 12:12-17). It is during this period of time that the restrainer (2 Thess. 2:6-7), who pre-wrath rapturists interpret as Michael the Archangel, will stand aside and cease from restraining evil and satanic lawlessness. Rosenthal notes:

Speaking of this one who will hinder the Antichrist, Paul said, "only he who now hindereth will continue to hinder until he be taken out of the way" (2 Thess. 2:7). The word hindereth means to hold down, and the phrase taken out of the way means to step aside. Therefore, the one who had the job of hindering the Antichrist will step aside; that is, he will no longer be a restraint between the antichrist and those the Antichrist is persecuting.

Pre-wrath rapturists are careful to note that only the wrath of man through the Antichrist or Satan's wrath have been exhibited up until this point of the Tribulation period. In other words, the wrath of God will be absent from the Tribulation period's first sixty-three months.

Third, the final section of the Tribulation period, according to pre-wrath rapturists, is known as the "Day of the Lord." The opening of the sixth seal judgment (Rev. 6:12-17), with its cosmic disturbances, will herald the rapidly approaching Day of the Lord. The Day of the Lord will begin with the opening of the seventh seal judgment (Rev. 8:1-6) and will continue as the angels sound the various trumpet judgments (Rev. 8:7-11:19). It too will last twenty-one months, and it is during this segment that the world for the first time will experience divine wrath during Daniel's Seventieth Week. Pre-wrath rapturists are also quick to note that God's wrath is not mentioned in the Book of Revelation until the events surrounding the sixth seal judgment (Rev. 6:16-17). The rapture will occur prior to the Day of the Lord. Pre-wrath rapturists place the rapture at this juncture since they maintain that the Bible only promises that believers will be delivered from God's wrath (1 Thess. 1:10; 5:9; Rom. 5:9) rather than from tribulation. Since, according to this scheme, the wrath of God will not exist until the Tribulation period's final twenty-one months, the church will be present for the Tribulation period's first sixty-three months. Thus, the seventh seal judgment will not only launch the Day of the Lord, or the Tribulation period's final twenty-one months, but also the rapture of the church.

While several excellent book-length and in-depth refutations of pre-wrath rapturism are available, the present brief critique will focus on only seven general problems with the pre-wrath rapture view. First, the pre-wrath rapture view places the church, a distinct spiritual organism, into Daniel's Seventieth Week, which is a time period when God will be exclusively dealing with national Israel (Dan. 9:24). Earlier in the series, we noted that the first of seven reasons why the church must be raptured before the Tribulation even begins is because the Tribulation period concerns God's unfinished program with Israel as given in the Seventy Week's prophecy rather than the church. Since God deals with Israel and the church on a mutually exclusive basis, the church cannot be present for any of Daniel's Seventieth Week. The pre-wrath rapture view ignores this fundamental principle by placing the church into three quarters of Daniel's Seventieth Week, which represents a time period comprising God's program with national Israel. As Robert Lightner well observes, "The prewrath Rapture view is different from the normal pretribulation view in that it does not consistently distinguish between God's program with Israel and His program with the church. The way it differs is that it has the church in Israel's seventieth week..." George Zeller similarly offers the following excellent analysis:

The Pre-Wrath view CONFUSES the mysterious and parenthetical nature of the Church Age. It confuses CHURCH HISTORY with ISRAELITE HISTORY. God has a program for the Church and God has a distinct program for His people Israel. The two must not be confused. The clearest and most complete chronological prophecy that God has given to us is the 70-week prophecy in Daniel 9:24-27. These 70 weeks involve 490 years of Jewish history: "Seventy weeks are determined UPON THY PEOPLE AND UPON THY HOLY CITY." These 490 years pertain to the Jews and to Jerusalem, not to the Church. Of the 490 years, the last seven years are yet unfulfilled. After the first 69 weeks the Messiah was cut off and we know that the Church Age began less than two months after the Messiah was cut off. Daniel's 70th week has remained unfulfilled for nearly 2000 years. The prophetic time clock has stopped ticking for all these years. The clock stopped ticking after the 69th week and has not yet resumed ticking. How can we explain this large 2000 year gap between the 69th week and the 70th week? The answer is revealed on the pages of the New Testament. DURING THIS 2000 YEAR GAP GOD IS INVOLVED IN THE FOLLOWING PROGRAM: 1. He is building His Church (Matt. 16:18; Acts 2:47). 2. He is taking out a people for His Name (Acts 15:14). 3. He is bringing in the fullness of the Gentiles (Rom. 11:25). 4. He is placing believers into a living organism (1 Cor. 12:13). 5. He is saving a "showcase" that will eternally display His matchless grace (Eph. 1:7). 6. He is manifesting Himself through His body which is upon the earth (1 Tim. 3:15-16). Just as the Church had an abrupt beginning on the day of Pentecost shortly after the conclusion of the 69th week, so it should be expected that the Church will have an abrupt removal shortly before the beginning of the 70th week. The Pretribulation model harmonizes perfectly with Daniel's 70th week prophecy while at the same time recognizing the parenthetical and mysterious nature of the Church Age. It is "mysterious" in the sense that Church truth was unrevealed on the pages of the Old Testament and the Church Age was not foreseen by the prophets. The Old Testament prophets did not tell us about the gap simply because they did not see the gap. It was unrevealed to them. They saw only the two mountain peaks which represent the first and second comings of Christ but they did not see the large valley in between. The Pre-Wrath view sees the Church as being on earth during a large part of Daniel's 70th week (the Church will be on earth, according to Rosenthal's charts, for approximately 3/4 of the last seven years, or approximately five years or more). This mixes up and confuses God's purpose for Israel and God's purpose for the Church. THE CHURCH HAS NEVER AND WILL NEVER BE PRESENT ON EARTH DURING ANY OF ISRAEL'S 70 WEEKS. The Church began after the 69th week ended and the Church will be raptured before the 70th week begins.

Second, the pre-wrath rapture of the church denies the imminent return of Christ. Earlier in this series we noted how the rapture is the very next event on the prophetic horizon. It is a signless event that can transpire at any moment. This is why the New Testament constantly exhorts New Testament believers to be looking for Christ's imminent return in the rapture (John 14:3; 1 Thess. 1:10; 4:15; 1 Cor. 1:7; 15:51; Philip. 3:20; Titus 2:13; Jas. 5:8) rather than to be focused on the Antichrist, the rebuilding of the Temple, or some other prophetic sign as the very next event on the prophetic horizon. The pre-wrath rapture of the church, by placing the rapture in the middle of the second half of the Tribulation period, denies the idea that the rapture is imminent and in fact can happen today. An entire prophetic scenario consisting of roughly three-fourths of the Tribulation period must first transpire according to pre-wrath rapturism. Kessinger well explains the signs that first must transpire before the rapture can occur according to the pre-wrath rapture scheme and how this notion represents a gross violation of the doctrine of imminency:

Scripture for the Month: Nehemiah 1:8-9

“Remember the word which You commanded Your servant Moses, saying, ‘If you are unfaithful I will scatter you among the peoples; but if you return to Me and keep My commandments and do them, though those of you who have been scattered were in the most remote part of the heavens, I will gather them from there and will bring them to the place where I have chosen to cause My name to dwell.’

The doctrine of imminence holds the Christ can come to rapture His church at any moment. Believers in the early church, including the apostle Paul, believed that Christ could come in their lifetime (1 Thessalonians 1:10; 4:13-15; Titus 2:13). The church sees this doctrine as an incentive for ministry and godly living. Does this mean the Christ's return for His church will be at any moment, without any sign, and with no yet to be fulfilled prophesied event to precede it? Pre-wrath rapturists argue that Christ could come in any generation but that signs will herald the general time. Those signs include (1) the emergence of the antichrist, (2) wars and rumors of war, (3) famine, (4) pestilence, and (5) cosmic disturbance. Pre-wrath rapturists emphasize Christians' expectancy of Christ's return rather than its imminency. This expectancy of Christ's return is the catalyst for holy living.
