“Abraham stopped at ten, because he assumed that would be sufficient because of the size of Lot’s family, since Lot’s total household at this point did number ten: Lot; Lot’s wife; Lot’s two sons (19:12); his two married daughters (19:14); and his two sons-in-laws (19:14); and finally, his two single virgin daughters (19:8).”

Genesis 19:31-32

i. Problem (31)

ii. Solution (32)

34

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Dr. Arnold G. Fruchtenbaum
The Book of Genesis, 330

"In verse 31b, she expressed the problem: Our father is old, meaning his time is running out for him to be able to produce sons. Furthermore: There is not a man in the earth to come in unto us after the manner of all the earth. Sometimes this phrase has been misinterpreted to mean that they thought that everybody in the world was destroyed and there were no men left, but that is simply not true. They did, after all, spend some time in Zoar, and so they knew there were males available."

35

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Dr. Arnold G. Fruchtenbaum
The Book of Genesis, 330

"Therefore, they were not saying that there were no men left alive anywhere in the world to whom they could be joined in marriage. Rather, the issue was that no men would be willing to marry them, since their survival of such destruction implied that they were somewhat bad luck. Twice now, Sodom suffered a calamity, and both times Lot and his family were involved. Furthermore, the married parts of the family were also killed."

37

Dr. Arnold G. Fruchtenbaum

The Book of Genesis, 330-31

"Therefore, in verse 32, the older daughter came up with a solution: Let us make our father drink wine. The Hebrew word means, 'Let us make our father drunk.' She does not merely want him to drink wine, but she wants him to become drunk. Then: We will lie with him. There is a play upon the words in the Hebrew text again. To make drunk is nashke; to lie with him is nishkavah. "Let us make him nashke and then we will nishkavah."

2 Peter 2:7-9

"<sup>7</sup> and if He rescued righteous Lot, oppressed by the sensual conduct of unprincipled men <sup>8</sup> (for by what he saw and heard that righteous man, while living among them, felt his righteous soul tormented day after day by their lawless deeds), <sup>9</sup> then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from temptation, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment for the day of judgment."

"If a person fails to love and obey the Lord through the trials of life, then there is no evidence that he possesses saving faith. How many people do you know who came to church for a while, had a little trouble in their lives, and left? Although they may have made a profession of faith in Christ, they cannot be identified as those who love Him because their lives are not characterized by enduring obedience."

"<sup>24</sup>Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may win. <sup>25</sup>Everyone who competes in the games exercises self-control in all things. They then do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable. <sup>26</sup>Therefore I run in such a way, as not without aim; I box in such a way, as not beating the air; <sup>27</sup>but I discipline my body and make it my slave, so that, after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified."

Dr. Arnold G. Fruchtenbaum
The Book of Genesis, 332

"The first reference is Matthew 11:23-24, where Jesus declared that it would be more tolerable for Sodom in the day of judgment than for Capernaum. Although homosexuality is a very grievous sin, an even more grievous sin is having been confronted with spiritual truth, especially concerning the Messiahship of Jesus, and rejecting it. Since so many miracles of Jesus were performed in Capernaum and the people living there rejected Him anyway, it will be more tolerable for Sodom in the Day of Judgment than for Capernaum."
