The great American statesman Daniel Webster was once asked, “What’s the most sobering thought that ever entered your mind?” He quickly responded, “My personal accountability to God.”

Acts 17:31-because He has fixed a day in which He will judge the world in righteousness through a Man whom He has appointed, having furnished proof to all men by raising Him from the dead.

Heb. 11:6-And without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him.

John 3:18-He who believes in Him is not judged; he who does not believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

John 5:40-and you are unwilling to come to Me so that you may have life.

John 3:19-21-<sup>19</sup> This is the judgment, that the Light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the Light, for their deeds were evil. <sup>20</sup> For everyone who does evil hates the Light and does not come to the Light for fear that his deeds will be exposed. <sup>21</sup> But he who practices the truth comes to the Light, so that his deeds may be manifested as having been wrought in God.

Heb. 11:25-choosing rather to endure ill-treatment with the people of God than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin.

“Some teach from these verses that those who reject Christ before the rapture will have no opportunity of receiving Him in the Tribulation. However, this view forces the text to answer a question that it is not dealing with. These verses do not deal with the question of who can be saved during the tribulation period. Rather, they are dealing with how the lawless one will gain control of the world during that time and why God will allow the earth’s population to be deluded. These verses are speaking of unbelievers in the Tribulation. The context pertains to Daniel’s 70th Week and not issues related to the church age.”

Matt. 24:14-This gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.

Rev. 14:6-7- <sup>6</sup>And I saw another angel flying in midheaven, having an eternal gospel to preach to those who live on the earth, and to every nation and tribe and tongue and people; <sup>7</sup>and he said with a loud voice, “Fear God, and give Him glory, because the hour of His judgment has come; worship Him who made the heaven and the earth and sea and springs of waters.”
