2 Thessalonians 2:

“Now we beseech you, brethren,
by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering
together unto him ...

“... that day shall not come,
except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition ...”

“... Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders ...

“... And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved ...”

“... And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie.”

EGYPT proclaimed a state of emergency last night as the world waited tensely for the next move following the assassination of President Sadat.

A safe Sadat man took over power until Parliament elects a new Head of State. But while the West mourned a man of peace, many in the Arab world rejoiced.

Who did it? Undoubtedly a group of men wearing Egyptian uniforms at a Cairo military parade. But who was behind them, and whether the killing was political or religious, is not known.

Libya's Colonel Kadhafi was suspected of backing Egypt's renegade General Shabouh, the old enemy, war not.

THE GUNS

This was to have been 62-year-old Anwar Sadat's great day, the anniversary of his 1973 offensive against Israel. In black, beribboned uniform, eyes on his shiny boots, he stood smiling and hardy in a grandstand taking the salute of his troops.

All eyes were on a squadron of Mirage jets screaming over, waving coloured smoke trails. On the ground soldiers hearing artillery moved back ahead for the climax of the parade.

One of the leaders seemed to stall right in front of the presidential box and a man in olive-drab fatigues and blue beret leaped out. He threw a grenade which bounced behind him and exploded.

Then half a dozen more men were out, shouting "Obey to Egypt—attack" and firing automatic rifles on the run.

Bullets ripped into the stands—full of women and children as well as military

Manipulating Peer Pressure

THE FATHER OF PROPAGANDA & THE ENGINEERING OF FEMALE CONSENT

EDWARD BERNAYS PART ONE

Edward Bernays,
nephew of Sigmund Freud, wrote a book in 1928 titled

Propaganda

on how businesses get women to buy their shoes.

“A larger manufacturer ... of women's shoes ... (has) a popular actress ... wear the shoes. The fashion spreads ...

The man who injected this idea into the shoe industry was ruling women in one department of their social lives.”

“Today ... the minority has discovered a powerful help in influencing the majority ... To mold the mind of the masses

... They find in propaganda a tool which is increasingly powerful ... regimenting the public mind.”

“propaganda” to “public relations”

"The conscious and intelligent manipulation of the organized habits and opinions of the masses is an important element in democratic society. Those who manipulate this unseen mechanism of society constitute an invisible government which is the true ruling power of our country."

“In almost every act of our daily lives, whether in the sphere of politics or business, in our social conduct or our ethical thinking, we are dominated by the relatively small number of persons... It is they who pull the wires which control the public mind.”

- EDWARD BERNAYS -

Declaration of Independence:

“... government from the consent of the governed.”

But what if you could

“engineer consent”?

“Manipulation

 NEW YORK, Oct. 30 (U.P.)—Reports among radio listeners throughout the nation and actual panic evacuations from sections of the metropolitan area resulted from a sensational radio broadcast tonight describing a fictitious and devastating invasion of strange men from Mars.
 Excited and weeping persons all over the country emptied streets and police watchboards with the question: "Is it true?"
 It was just a legend of H. G. Wells' "War of the Worlds" which was broadcast by the radio station in New York last night, but thousands of people believe it was real.
 Many New Yorkers were panicked and fled to their basements and cellars, and a large number of people were hospitalized and treated for the time being.

USING BEHAVIORAL SCIENCE INSIGHTS TO BETTER SERVE THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

A growing body of evidence demonstrates that behavioral science insights -- research findings from fields such as behavioral economics and psychology about how people make decisions and act on them -- can be used to design government policies to better serve the American people.

A REVIEW OF SOVIET PSYCHOLOGICAL WARFARE

This is an example of the propaganda technique of name calling. It also is what the psychologists call projection. If you do something wrong, accuse the enemy of doing it before he accuses you. It is particularly effective when the charge is false. The one who makes it first has the advantage because many people believe any charge they hear without investigating it. A person (or nation) ascribes his ing it. A person (or nation) ascribes his motives to the opposition. If a nation is aggressive, it charges that its enemy is aggressive. This action tends to relieve its own feeling of guilt at the aggression. We have all heard children claim that "he hit me first," in order to escape blame for a fight. The Soviet Union behaved in the same childish way.
