Mohammad Abolghassem Doulabi, Iranian President Ebrahim Raisi's special representative in clerical affairs

A senior Iranian cleric says around 50,000 of Iran's 75,000 mosques are closed, showing the declining numbers of Iranians attending.

A landmark 2021 study by GAMAAN surveyed 50,000+ people inside Iran, and the results are shocking

Only 32% of Iranians now identify as Shi'a Muslim.

Nearly half the population says they have lost their religion or are "nones."
73% support the total separation of religion and state.

A detailed illustration of a lion's head in profile, facing left. The lion has a thick, golden-brown mane and a regal expression. It wears an ornate, multi-tiered golden crown adorned with intricate designs and small, glowing jewels. The background is a dramatic, dark blue and black sky with swirling patterns, punctuated by bright, fiery orange and yellow light sources on the left side, creating a sense of power and grandeur. The text 'KING OF KINGS' is prominently displayed across the center of the image, with 'KING' and 'KINGS' in red and 'OF' in white, all with a white outline.
